

Asset Forfeiture: Law and Procedure

March 7, 2019 Sheraton Virginia Beach Oceanfront

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEYS' SERVICES COUNCIL
Training Virginia's Prosecutors for the 21st Century

Free Statewide Training for Prosecutors, Law Enforcement, and
Civilian Asset Forfeiture Coordinators
Sheraton Virginia Beach Oceanfront Hotel
3501 Atlantic Ave, Virginia Beach, VA 23451

This program is designed for prosecutors, law enforcement, and civilian asset forfeiture coordinators. It is free of charge. Pre-registration is REQUIRED.

Our one-day class will cover the basics of asset forfeiture law and procedure, as well as administrative requirements. Instructors include experienced law enforcement officers and prosecutors from the field, including Tom Shaia, Deputy Commonwealth's Attorney, Suffolk, as well as DCJS forfeiture program staff.

Law Enforcement PIC and Prosecutor MCLE credits are pending.

The program runs from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Registration will begin at 7:30 a.m.

Sign Up at the CASC Website:

www.cas.state.va.us/trainingprograms.htm

Lunch will be provided, free of charge, courtesy of the Virginia Sheriffs' Institute and CASC.

For more information, contact Elliott Casey, Staff Attorney, CASC at ejcasey@wm.edu.